

Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Pauline Magdanz was born August 16, 1931, and spent her formative years in Louisiana, Missouri, where she received her education and graduated from Louisiana High School in 1949; and,

Whereas, Pauline honed her customer service skills and developed her exceptional work ethic at an early age in Louisiana, working as a soda jerk at O'Donnell's Drug Store from 1945 to 1948, as a typist for Stark Bros. Nursery from 1948 to 1949, and as a bookkeeper for the school lunch program at Louisiana High School in 1949; and,

Whereas, Pauline and her husband, Tom, were married in 1953, spent nearly 45 wonderful years together, and were blessed with three amazing children - Tom, Beverly, and Steve, who in turn presented them with seven grandchildren, Dillon, Matthew, Chelsea, Brittany, Christopher, Sara, and Morgan; and,

Whereas, Pauline later moved to Pierre, South Dakota, and began her professional career with the state of South Dakota in the Department of Revenue as a clerk/typist on November 1, 1965; and,

Whereas, Pauline later worked her way up to a Revenue Agent position with the Department of Revenue, eventually becoming a Senior Revenue Agent, a position she currently holds within the department; and,

Whereas, Pauline has consistently been one of the department's hardest-working and most valued employees, accepting and adapting to countless new laws, administrations, computer systems and upgrades during her tenure, and providing invaluable history on South Dakota's taxation system on a regular basis; and,

Whereas, Pauline has admirably served the state of South Dakota in the Department of Revenue for nearly 38 years, impressing those who worked with her with her attention to detail, pride in her work, willingness to share her knowledge with those around her, and her trademark laugh; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the contributions of this employee to the state of South Dakota during her many years of employment with state government:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 12, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join her co-workers, family, and friends in congratulating her on this well-earned retirement and wishing her a long, healthy, peaceful, and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds
M. Michael Rounds, Governor
